73. Narrative On 12/8/2006 I did view the video supplied by St. Peter's College (SPC) involving this incident. The tape shows Akhirah Stephenson entering Whalen Hall (SPC student dormitory) with approximately four unidentified males and one female (identified by SPC Director of Security, John Morgan as Lazmen Stroman, dob-7-29-1988, 109 Rossell Ave. Trenton, NJ 08638, student at SPC). The tape also shows the same individuals leaving the dorm directly before the victim comes out to the lobby to report this incident to SPC security. I was unable to identify the males pictured in the video at this time. Mark Cheatham (witness) stated that as he was being assaulted the actor made a statement that lead him (Cheatham) to believe that the actor was the brother of Ms. Stephenson. He (Cheatham) also stated that he believed that Akhirah Stephenson had encouraged the unidentified males to attack him and the victim because he had a verbal dispute with her and she (Stephenson) did not "like" him or his roommates. I spoke with Detective Pappas of the New Brunswick Police Dept. (732-745-5200 x 5217) who stated that there were several hundred "Stephenson's" listed in their computer but none that had the same address as the arrested. On December 8, 2006, this detective (Broady) did respond to St. Peter's College and did speak with Security Personnel (John Morgan, Director of Campus Safety and Richard Heymeyer, Asst. Dir. of Campus Safety 201-915-0042), regarding an incident that was directly involving this case (X-ref file #41133-06) in which the arrested (A. Stephenson) did respond to SPC and was directly involved in harassing and assaulting a student at SPC
